TORONTO TIDINGS

Bob McPherson has returned home from his vacation in Western Ontario and Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Lloyd and family were with us over the Civic holiday, and took in the Frats picnic. Nicholas Gura, of Oshawa, was smiling in our midst over the week-end of August 3d, and took in our Island meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Grooms had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gladow and family, of Hamilton, during the Civic holiday week-end.

A few years back, we were favored with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Whyland, of Rochester, N. Y., and again they came over to renew old acquaintances over the week-end of August 3d, and we were delighted to see them once more.

Mr. J. R. Byrne spoke at our service on August 4th, in place of H. W. Roberts, who was away. Mr. Byrne gave a very forceful address to a good holiday crowd.

Mr. George Petrimouk, of Sandwich, came down to see his old friends here for the week-end of August 3d, and attended the Frats outing.

Mr. Alexander Buchan, Jr., of Chicago, came down on August 4th, on a two weeks' vacation, to visit his mother, brother, John, and other relatives, and left again on August 15th for the "Windy City."

A trio of young Hamilton sports bloomed into town and exuded their customary smiles over the week-end of August 3d, and figured in the Frats Annual. They were Messrs. Jesse Batstone, James Moreland and Melville Rourke.

The Misses Egginton had as their guest over the week-end of August 3d, Miss Edith Ballagh, of Whitby.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Bell, with their new Durant sedan went on a long trip to Hamilton and through the beautiful country to Niagara Falls on August 4th, accompanied by Mr. David Lawrence and a couple of hearing friends. They had a grand time.

At time of writing, the aged widowed mother of Mr. Niel A. McGillivray and Mrs. H. W. Roberts, is down from Purpleville, and visiting her children here.

The condition of Mr. Sidney Walker continues to improve, and he is now out of the hospital and steadily recuperating at his home on Yonge Street North.

Mrs. William O'Rourke, of Peterboro, came tip for the week-end of August 3d, to see her daughter at the home of the Good Shepherd, and her son at the Mimico Detention home. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry White while here.

Mr. Harry E. Grooms of the post office staff, started on his three weeks' vacation on August 8th, and with his family left for points east.

Miss Adeline Lawson, with her sister and parents, have returned from a very pleasant vacation in Muskoka.

Mr. Clarence McPeake is now working on a farm near Brampton, but will soon be leaving again for the Belleville School.

Mr. Wesley Ellis enjoyed the Civic holiday recess over at Niagara Falls, and is now leaning on his "wishbone."

At time of writing, Miss Carrie Brethour is away on her vacation, visiting relatives and old schoolmates in Ottawa, Montreal, and other parts in down east.

Miss Betty Reid took a trip over to Niagara Falls for the week-end of August 3d, and spent the time very pleasantly with relatives.

The Toronto press lauds our well-known ball player, Miss Caroline Buchanan, who plays third base for the Toronto Wet Wash Laundry girls' softball team. Being deaf, adverse rooting means nothing to her. The umpire always arranges signs for her on balls and strikes, and Caroline just turns around to get his signal after each pitched ball when at bat. When a third strike is signalled, she smilingly goes over to her bench. She is a good player all around and quite fast on the bases.

The police of this city have been searching for Miss Dorothy Thompson, who disappeared from her home at 496 Church Street, on Civic holiday, and at the time of writing has not located. She is 35 years of age and totally deaf. As far as we can glean, she is not known among the deaf here, but perhaps she is a recent arrival.

THE FRATS' ANNUAL

Despite a chilly day and many away for the holiday, the Frats of this city held their annual picnic at Centre Island on Civic holiday, August 5th, and it was a success in every way. There were many visitors, who supplanted the "absentees," and lots of fun for all. A nice programme of sports was carried out with keen rivalry existing among the contestants, and here are the results:—

Children's Race (8 years and under)—First, Miss Dorris Grooms; second, Miss Thelma Gladow.

Girls' Race (12 years and under)—First, Miss Dorris Grooms; second, Miss Peggy Gladow.

WATERLOO WEE BITS

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Patterson of Galt, and the former's brother, Walter Patterson, of Milton, took in the Frats' picnic at Toronto on Civic holiday, August 5th.

Nine-year-old Margaret Krause, who returned from the Belleville School in June last, was struck by a car on Frederick Street, in Kitchener, on August 3d, and suffered a fractured skull. She was playing on the street with some other children, when struck and rendered unconscious. The car was driven by Mr. W. Batter, of Kitchener, but he was not held, it being purely an accident. At time of writing, she is still holding her own at the Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Patterson, of Galt, and Walter Patterson, of Milton, were guests of the Moynihans on August 4th.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Patterson, Sr., of Milton, was very tastefully decorated on July 27th, in honor of the marriage of Miss Mae Johnston, of Kitchener, to their son, Mr. Lewis Clayton Patterson. The Rev. T. Watkins of the Presbyterian Church of Milton, officiated in the presence of four other deaf persons as well as over seventy hearing relatives and friends. The young bride, gown in a beautiful wedding dress of dove blue satin, was assisted by the groom's sister, Miss Julia Patterson, as bridesmaid, looking lovely in yellow georgette. The groom was supported by a hearing friend. The bride received many beautiful, costly and useful presents. They will live in Galt for the present, surrounded by our best wishes.

HORNING MILLS HUMOR

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton and Messrs. Moses Summers and Joffe Averall motored to Corbeton on July 28th, where they spent the day very pleasantly with the Sherritt family.

Miss Alma Brown, of Toronto, came up from Toronto to spend the week-end of August 3d, with her home folks in Markdale, not far from here. She brought up her chum, Miss Annabel Thomson, as her guest, and both report a lovely time.

Miss Helen A. Middleton, of Niagara Falls, came up to spend the Civic holiday week-end of August 3d, with her parents here. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Roberts, of Toronto, were also the guests of the Middletons at the same time. All had a lovely visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Averall and Randall Clark motored up from Cookstown in the evening of August 3d, and spent the night at the Middletons. In the morning the whole bunch, including the Middletons, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, Moses Summers and Joffe Averall, motored out to Singhampton, and picking up Mr. John Taylor, continued on their way to Wasaga Beach, where they enjoyed the day. Here they met Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shepherd and son, of Toronto, Misses Alma Brown and Annabel Thomson, T. Herbert Brown and Miss Bell, a teacher at the Belleville School, at this well-known Georgian Bay summer resort, and all formed a pleasant bunch.

From time to time, Mr. John Taylor, of Singhampton, is in the habit of changing his facial looks in order to fool his friends and this time he almost put one over your reporter. Having a cleanly shaven face, thought he would be like that; since last seen he has accumulated a heavy Kitchen-like moustache, which completely changes his whole looks, hence the unrecognizable face. When seated around the festive board at Wasaga Beach park, John could easily be singled out as the "Daddy of them all."

The day, August 4th, was not an ideal summer day at the beach. A howling wind with a velocity of sixty miles an hour, and tempered with a March-like temperature, kept blowing all day and lashed the hitherto calm waters of the bay into the greatest fury that the oldest resident can remember, putting the beautiful motoring path on the beach out of the picture for the present; but great crowds sat on the high cliffs for hours watching with wondrous eyes the flashing foaming billows, as though wanting to know what the wild waves were saying.

Mr. Joffe Averall, of Cookstown, is working for the Middletons for a month, to earn a little money to take with him to the Belleville School next month.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

Another subscription bobs up this week.

The Walter Bell family, of Oshawa, have returned from a very pleasant vacation spent at Bala, in the rugged Muskoka district.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wark, of Wyoming, visited Mr. and Mrs. William Summers near Sombra on July 23d, and were pleased to meet their son, who returned from Sarnia, where he attends school.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Woodward, of St. Williams, were lately taking a holiday at Port Dover.

Quite a number of the deaf in Ontario intended going to the west with the harvesters, but as no harvesters are much needed out there this year, our friends were disappointed.

SEATTLE

The Seattle-Portland Half Way Picnic at Centralia on July 26th-27th, was as great a success as the former picnics, although the attendance from Seattle was slightly less, due to the recent W. S. A. D. convention. There were about 125 at the evening entertainment at the Elk's Club hall, which had been secured for the occasion. The Elks threw open the billiard room of five or six tables, which were crowded all evening, while others tried to show their skill on the golf putting practicing machine.

H. P. Nelson, Portland, dressed up as a dandy and related some stories, while Miss Ethel Morton and Mrs. Will Rowland rendered "Yankee Doodle," "Out Where the West Begins" and "America." The refreshments were cleaned out near 1 A.M., the closing hour.

Arrivals Sunday morning augmented the crowd at Borst Park till nearly two hundred were present. Messrs. Lynch and Peterson won the horseshoe championship and carried off the regulation horseshoes as trophies. Portland swamped Seattle in a seven inning baseball game by 21 to 11.

Several other contests were run off, but we failed to get a list of the winners.

Sentiment is strong for a continuation of the Half Way Picnic, except that a place on some lake will probably be selected next year, even if the trip is an hour's journey nearer Seattle or Portland.

It seemed there would be no more arrivals at the picnic, when there appeared Mr. and Mrs. Werner, of Salem, Ore., with Mrs. T. A. Lindstrom as their companion. The night before Mr. Werner was granted his two-weeks vacation without any previous hint, hence their short stay. They spoke of a dandy time at their big picnic at a grove near Salem the Sunday before. There were sixty people present.

Miss Marion Finch, of Salem, Ore., many years a teacher, girl's supervisor, and nurse in turn, came to Seattle in the Bertram's Studebaker and stayed overnight at their home. From July 28th to August 4th, she was the Wrights' guest and visited the United States Sand Point aviation field and the United States government locks. At the latter place she remarked she will have a clearer explanation of canal locks when she describes to her class this fall. She is a lovable and agreeable person. She was the honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Wright. Those present were Mesdames Bertram, Partridge and Reeves.

Sunday, August 4th, in Miss Finch's honor, a party went to Norma Beach on the sound, eighteen miles from Seattle, a new rough place in the woods with a lovely spring of icy water. There were nearly one hundred autos parked and only a few tables but the bunch luckily secured two tables and had a fine chicken lunch and then went swimming rowing and fishing. Kermit Wright and Milo Root caught seven trout. At 8 o'clock in the evening the party returned home. Mrs. Bertram had Miss Finch and M. J. Clark in her car, the Reeves had the Roots and the Wrights the Zieglers.

Miss Finch took the stage to Tacoma to meet her friend, Mrs. Cook, of Winnipeg, who with Mrs. Hale, was preparing to take a trip to Mt. Rainier in the latter's machine. Mrs. Cook has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law there since our state convention.

Jack Bertram went to Victoria, B. C., Saturday, August 3d, to golf for a couple days.

Under the management of Rex Oliver, Everett, about thirty deaf friends motored to Lake Goodwin for a big bonfire, fishing, boating and swimming week-end. Some came from Everett, Anacortes, Arlington and Seattle. The Haire family was among the party and said it was a success.

Ed Spieler was very much surprised when a party entered his home in his apartment on Madison Street. It was for his birthday and he received several nice useful presents. The day was also Mrs. W. E. Brown's natal day and her friends remembered her with gifts when she joined the party. Sandwiches, cake, fruit, coffee and ice-cream were served.

At the Pantorium Dye Works, where for several years Mrs. Brown has been a popular employee, she was presented an immense decorated birthday cake and gifts. She was astonished that the girls did not forget her.

Bert Haire was tendered a surprise birthday party at his home by sixteen friends last Saturday night. A handsome pipe was presented to him. From his wife and children and his brother, he received a gold watch and several other things. It was a nice gathering and there was abundant refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Haire, with Miss Bertha Stowe as a passenger, motored to Arlington last Sunday to pick cherries on the Brazelton's ranch. They brought home twenty-five pounds.

Miss Esther Bloomquist had a pleasant visit from her father, mother, sister and brother the past month. In a week they will take her home to Michigan, driving via California, to visit relatives. We are very loath to see her go, as she has been a most useful and trustworthy girl in our circle, helping her friends in sickness, and doing many little things, which, are really big. A farewell party is being prepared for her tonight at the Lutheran hall.

Mrs. Roy Harris is home from Wendatsee for a few days, getting ready to move there. There is work in view for Mr. Harris for a year in Corvallis. At present he is the boss of several men building cottages.

Mrs. Harris, said Lawrence Belsler is going to California, for his health this month.

Vivian, one of the Wrights' daughters, and Jean, the grandson, left for San Francisco by train to visit Vivian's sister, Alberta.

It is quite remarkable when one realizes that nearly seventy-five people from Olathe either are in the educational work for the deaf at present, or have been at some time. It is quite natural that people living here should become interested in the work, but it is unusual that so many should become interested in different phases of the work, such as publishing books for the deaf, doing religious work, and becoming teachers for the deaf.

The following names are a partial list of the people from Olathe who are in educational work for the deaf at present.

J. J. Dold is the oldest instructor in point of service in the Kansas State School for the Deaf. Richard Thompson taught for thirty-eight years, D. S. Rogers for thirty-seven years, and Mr. Dold will start in his thirty-seventh year this fall. Mr. Dold attended the Nebraska School for the Deaf. During his entire service at this school, Mr. Dold has been an untiring worker among the deaf and he is held in the highest esteem both by the deaf, and the hearing people of Olathe.

E. H. McIlvain attended the Kansas and Ohio schools for the deaf. He has been on the faculty of the Kansas school for over twenty-five years. The McIlvain home is in North Olathe, and although the McIlvains keep very close to their work, their three daughters have been in the Olathe schools, and so, consequently, they have taken a wide interest in both the hearing and the deaf schools.

Miss Katherine Meldrum has been teaching in the Kansas school for over twenty-five years. She attended the Kansas school as a student and has the distinction of being the first student of this school offered a position on the Kansas faculty. Miss Meldrum lived for many years with Lena Bell, Olathe's first librarian, and for some time was assistant librarian herself, in which capacity she came in contact with many Olathe people, and has many friends in the hearing world.

Paul D. Hubbard, who is on the faculty of the Kansas State School, at present, is the father of football in the Kansas school, as he was the school's first football coach, starting in 1899. Mr. Hubbard attended both the Kansas Colorado schools for the deaf, and later the Gallaudet College in Washington, D. C. He has been teaching in the Kansas school for the past thirty years.

Charles Ramsey is a graduate of the North Carolina school and for the past ten years has been head of the shoe repairing department in the Kansas school. At one time, Mr. Ramsey was employed in the Hyer root factory, but later returned to the school for the deaf.

C. H. Laughlin, who owns the big Englewood chicken farm out on the Kansas City road, has been instructor in cabinet making in the Kansas school for the past eight years.

Miss Vering Speer, who is considered one of the finest art teachers ever on the faculty of the Kansas State School for the Deaf, received special training in deaf work just a few years ago. Her A.B. was received at Washburn College, Topeka, Kan. She also attended the University of Kansas. Miss Speer was a teacher in the public schools before entering this special work. Besides teaching art, Miss Speer is instructor in rhythm.

Miss Josephine Washington, who is at present on the faculty of the Kansas school, formerly taught in the Oklahoma and Missouri schools.

Miss Louise Wilson, who is teaching in the Kansas school, took training here and at the school for the deaf in Jacksonville, Ill. She has been here for the past three years.

Miss Audria J. Granger, who is now teaching in the Minnesota school, lived and taught in Olathe many years. She was Helen May Martin's first teacher in the Kansas school.

Mrs. Mildred Lines has been teaching the beginning class in the Kansas school for the past five years, before which time she taught in the Olathe public school. Mrs. Lines took private training, and also attended St. Louis Central Institute.

Miss Elsie McGee, whose home is on the Martin City road, east of Olathe, has taught in the Alabama school for the deaf, but at present is on the faculty of the Kansas school.

T. C. Simpson had never been in a school for the deaf, until he came to Kansas seven years ago as instructor in manual training. Mr. Simpson was a Junior in the Kansas State Agricultural College at the time he lost his hearing. Mrs. J. C. Simpson has been in the work for many years and at present teaches in the Literary Department in the Kansas school.

Miss Ruth Adams has had charge of the Day Deaf School in Topeka for the past three years. Miss Adams taught in the Kansas school for two years before going to Topeka. Besides attending the training school in Northampton, Mass., for teachers of the deaf, Miss Adams has a degree from Washburn College in Topeka.

Godfrey Adams, a graduate of the Kansas school, was coach and supervisor for three years in the State School for the Deaf in North Dakota, and for the past three years has been director of athletics at the State School in Jackson, Miss.

Mrs. Ada Thorne has been teaching in the State School for the Deaf here for several years. She received her training in Central Institute in St. Louis, Mo., and attended summer school at Northampton, Mass., where she had instruction under Miss Caroline Vale, one of the most famous oral teachers in the world.

John F. Duke, a barber in Olathe, has been teaching at the State School for the Deaf in Olathe for the past six years. Mr. Duke is considered a fine barber and a splendid teacher.

Miss Mable Genter and Miss Ruth Ellen Case are both instructors in the Nebraska State School for the Deaf, in Omaha, Neb. Miss Genter received her training at Central Institute, St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Case attended summer school at Staunton, Va., and training at Jacksonville, Ill.

Mrs. Mable Thompson Moll took her training in Central Institute in St. Louis, Mo. The year following her graduation, she was an instructor in the Institute. She will teach in the Iowa State School for the Deaf this winter.

Harvey Barnes, who is on the faculty of the Kansas school, graduated from the Olathe High School and was graduated from the University of Illinois two years ago. Since that time he has been in the Kansas school. His mother, Mrs. Blanche Hunt, and his aunt, Mrs. May Buxton Cooper, were both teachers in the Kansas school. Mrs. May Buxton Cooper was the pianist in the Kansas school during her career while here. She is now living in Oakland, Calif., and teaching in the California State School for the Deaf, of which Elwood Stevenson, former head of the Kansas school, is superintendent.

A. L. Kent, who is head of the printing department in the Kansas school, was a student here. He has been here as printing instructor for several years, and we are indebted to Mr. Kent for locating many of the pictures pertaining to the early history of the school.

Edmiston Iles is at present instructor for the deaf-blind at the Fanwood School for the Deaf in New York City. Mr. Iles was graduated from the University of Kansas and later attended the Gallaudet College for the Deaf in Washington, D. C. He was at one time superintendent of the Arizona School for the Deaf, but returned to Fanwood school. Mr. Iles' father was at one time steward in the Kansas School for the Deaf.

Miss Bertie Hershey, daughter of Mrs. Edna S. Hershey, of Olathe, will teach in the Day Deaf School in Dayton, Ohio, next year. During the past year, Miss Hershey has been taking training at the Central Institute for the training of teachers of the Deaf in St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Kathleen Jones, daughter of Dr. C. W. Jones of this city, will be on the faculty of the Kansas State School for the Deaf next year. Miss Jones has been taking special training at the Central Institute for the training of teachers of the deaf in St. Louis, Mo., during the past winter. Miss Jones attended Baker University in Baldwin, and substituted in the Kansas School for one term, before going to the Central Institute.

Both of the Goddard sisters, who formerly lived near Wilder, taught in the Kansas school. Miss Mary Goddard, now Mrs. Bert Colford, of Leavenworth, took training with Miss Margaret Stevenson, Mrs. Roberta Goddard Brown, who is at present on the Kansas school faculty, took training at the Central Institute, St. Louis, Mo.

The two Doctor brothers are both in the work for the deaf. Frank C. Doctor, assistant athletic coach in the Kansas School, was graduated from the Kansas school. He was supervisor in the Iowa School for the Deaf for two years and has been in the Kansas school for the past four years.

Powrie V. Doctor is an instructor in English at the Gallaudet College for the Deaf in Washington, D. C. Two years ago he taught in the English Department at the University of Kansas.

Many residents of Olathe will remember Miss Clara Montgomery, whose home was in Olathe for many years. After teaching in the Kansas school for several years, Miss Montgomery went to Los Angeles, Calif., where she became advisory teacher in the Los Angeles High School, a work very similar to that of Miss Rithelyn Hammond.

Miss Rithelyn Hammond, of Montgomery, is a pioneer in this type of work, and is one of the best teachers of the deaf to do such work in the United States.

Fannie Helen Wilson, whose home is in Gardner, Kansas, will teach in the Dayton Day School, Dayton, Ohio, next year. Miss Wilson received her training at Central Institute, St. Louis, Mo., and taught one year in Kansas State School.

A girl teacher in Nebraska is driving a wheat truck during the summer. The Hutchinson Herald prints the item simply as a warning to tourists driving through Nebraska. Kansas City Star.

"He's true to God who's true to man;
Whenever wrong is done

That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race."

THE accident to a deaf man on a New York street crossing, last week, will of course reflect on the watchfulness of deaf-mutes in general.

The streets of New York have signal lights that tell people when the street traffic has paused to give way to traffic that crosses it. Nevertheless, it does not make the crossings entirely safe. It is necessary to be watchful at all times. Even the traffic regulations give way to ambulances and fire engines. All traffic comes to a full stop to allow an ambulance or a fire engine to rush by. The motor vehicles crowd to the curb on such occasions to make a passage as wide as possible.

Deaf-mutes, trained to rely upon their eyes alone, are usually the first to note the pause of general traffic and to know the reason.

Contrary to general belief, the partly deaf are not so well fortified against street accidents as the totally deaf. The reason is that amid the rush and roar of passing automobiles, the confusing noises are more of a worry than a help.

When the police signals a stop and a clear way for an ambulance or a fire engine, many of the autos coming to a stop work their sirens to warn others. The totally deaf man instantly notices the pause of traffic and senses the reason. He is usually in a safe place on the sidewalk, when the ambulance or fire engine speeds past. The partly deaf are very cautious, of course; but sometimes are victims of too great a reliance upon a defective sense.

When automobile horns are tooting, the clang of an ambulance is somewhat neutralized, and even if heard, the direction from whence it comes can't be instantly determined.

When a deaf-mute is run down, it is seldom that lack of hearing contributed to the accident. Rather it might be charged to mental absorption that blanketed the habitually alert eyes for the moment. It is a well-known fact that young boys and girls who have normal hearing, can be so absorbed with their lessons that they do not hear the talk around them, and sometimes it is necessary to shout repeatedly to them before they hear.

Another cause of totally as well as partly deaf facing disaster on the streets, is the careless habit of talking while making a street crossing. The wise way is to postpone the talk until reaching the opposite curb. Overconfidence in ability to see disaster and agility to avoid it, too often leads to trouble for the drivers, who slow up from a sense of responsibility, which compels the whole long line of traffic to do the same.

The surest way to escape street accidents—slight, serious, or fatal—is to obey the traffic signals and also use proper precaution by looking both sides and behind you in apprehension of a motor vehicle turning into the halted stream of traffic.

DETROIT

News items intended for this column should be sent to Mrs. Lucy E. May, 2534 Iowa St., Detroit, Mich. Such news items from Detroiters and vicinity as well as from the deaf of Michigan will be most welcome and have prompt attention.

An outing to Belle Isle was held by the E. E. Mission for the Deaf, on Sunday, August 4th. There was a very good crowd, more than expected because of the unfavorable weather. It was chilly and windy and the eats would not stay on the tables. Many members were absent, but there was a clear profit of about $14.20.

The Detroit Chapter, M. A. D., had an outing at the Detroit Creamery Grove, on August 14th, and it was a great success. The weather was ideal until about 6 o'clock, when a rain storm came and lasted about half an hour. A very good crowd was there. Many out-of-town guests were present. In the afternoon the games were held, and during the evening there was dancing and music. A very pretty junior lamp was won by Mr. T. Darling. Prize games started at 3 P.M.

Messrs. Wm. Behrendt, Peter Hellers, Japes and Cornish were the committee on games.

MRS. L. E. MAY

CALIFORNIA

After being cooped up at their respective schools for the deaf at Council Bluffs, Ia., and Berkeley, Cal., Dr. Long, principal of the Iowa school, and his son-in-law, Dr. Stevenson, of the Berkeley, Cal., school, during the nine months of school term, are vacationing at Long Beach, Cal., taking on a hide of tan, which no doubt will stick on during the whole nine months of their next "coop-up." Dr. Long, a man of sixty, who has given many years of his life to the welfare of the deaf at the Iowa school, and freely giving his valuable advice to those at the head of other institutions, was an interesting "speaker," from the platform of the Sphinx Club, the 6th of this month, along with his son-in-law, Dr. Stevenson, who "spoke" of the system he was carrying at the school at Berkeley, which was doing wonders.

Mr. Peterson, the printing instructor at the Berkeley school, also spoke on "United we succeed, divided we fail."

Approximately three hundred turned out to "listen in" to the above gentlemen's orations. Mrs. Alice T. Terry has the thanks from those attending for her efforts in having the meeting take place.

On July 28th last, Miss Beatrice Bennett, a charming young lady, became the wife of Mr. Carol Byers. The happy couple are making their home at Belvedere Gardens, a suburb east of Los Angeles. Congratulations.

Those attending the Dr. Long-Stevenson "oration" were treated to "Yankee Doodle," rendered in sign language by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elliott, whose wonderful and graceful sign manipulation held the audience in awed silence.

Mrs. Alice Terry gave an interesting story of her visit, in company of her husband, to Paris, and while there called to make a visit to the school for the deaf, stating that they had one awful time getting admitted for one reason or another, but finally were admitted, and what they saw led them to believe that barbering in Paris was a thing unknown, as every male teacher and official carried a beard and several of the lady teachers were trying to grow mustaches.

Mr. Otho McCullen, 77, a retired carpenter, formerly of Kansas, but now of Los Angeles, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Hurt, of Wesley Avenue, Thursday, July 9th, last, as were also Mr. and Mrs. Riley. Otho and Alvis have known each other for many years, and to celebrate their meeting after so many years elapsing, they locked horns and took in the doings on Broadway, Friday afternoon.

It seems likely that the Sphinx and A. C. D. clubs will merge and by doing so, it is believed, will have a better break to build up. The Sphinx, while quite new, has through the efforts of its officials and members, made much headway, and with the A. C. D. throwing in its lot, it is quite certain the Sphinx, or whatever the name may be given the merged club, will, as time wears on, grow into a powerful organization for the deaf.

In the next fight where Fred Mahan, "Dummy Mahan," as he is best known, participates, he will wear a fine ornamented robe as he enters the ring, presented him by the members of the Sphinx Club. The robe will carry a monogram etched in gold, "Sphinx" and costing $60.00. "Dummy" is scheduled to square off with Gorilla Jones, a Ohio black man, August 20th next, at the Olympic, and fully a thousand of "Dummy's" deaf friends will turn out to watch the two gladiators lam each other for gold and glory.

John Kohn, formerly caretaker of the Sphinx Club rooms, and a crowd of his hearing friends spent a week fishing and hunting thirty-five miles north of Los Angeles, the middle of July. He tells us that he had one glorious time and lots of luck. He returned looking the picture of health, with his "belly" resembling a bay window.

Harry Whalen, as stated in the issue of the JOURNAL, the 8th inst., has fully recovered from his "misery" and is making up lost time cutting fancy capers during the evenings at the ice rink. Harry is a renowned ice skater.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Patterson, of Berkeley, Cal., were the guests of Mr. Albert Ballin, Wednesday last, at his elegantly furnished apartment on North Grand Avenue. Mr. Patterson is the printing instructor at the Berkeley institution for the deaf, and a staunch friend of Mr. Ballin.

Bud, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Schufford, recently took unto himself a wife, and are spending their honeymoon at Hiawahi. Bud is an automobile salesman for one of Los Angeles' largest auto dealing firms.

After an unsuccessful trip to San Francisco in search of work at his calling, Guy T. Walker is back, making the best of it. Guy is an expert shoe-maker, but the influx of shoe-wranglers into California seems to cut out the deaf who follow that trade, as well as many other trades which the deaf have mastered.

Our friend and former side-kick as cow-poke back in the 90's, A. L. Hurt, says "doggin' pine boxes laden with canned stuff at one of the Safe Way stores, where he is employed, is getting his nanny, and that if he isn't promoted soon, he'll chuck the job and go back to the Indian country and hold a pow-wow with "Chief Great Buck," as what best job to take among his braves.

It sure is a tough break to have held a job as long as twenty-five years and then see the firm forced to the wall, forcing him out. Such was the luck of Wilford Mortimer, who was a basket-maker during all those years, but who, to-day, is unable to connect at any of the other factories. During the time he was employed, he saved and bought a handsome home, but lost two wives by death through sickness. He, however, is blessed with two smart children, a son, 17, and a daughter, 15, who are a great comfort to him.

Unaware of the man he struck, being the father of his companion, caused the arrest of Eddie Willis, a 32-year-old deaf-mute last August 11th. It appears Samuel Gore, fifty, had entered a resort where the two young fellows were and attempted to drag his son out. Willis, thinking Gore was molesting his companion, struck the elderly man a terrific blow, felling him to the floor, causing a fracture of the brain. He was removed to the hospital, where he died shortly afterwards. Willis was held and charged with manslaughter.

Miss Sally Swearing, a pretty young lady of twenty-two, was proudly "flashing" a diamond sparkler from her engagement finger among her friends at the Sphinx Club last Saturday evening, the 10th. The ring was placed on her finger by Eddie Sullivan, who let it be known that he and the young lady were engaged.

Marel Runge, who for eighteen years was employed as a mattress-filler at the Los Angeles Mattress and Pillow Factory, was in Los Angeles, from his home at Pomona, Cal., during the week-end of August 10th, Marel is fast becoming blind, having already lost his hearing many years ago. His visit to the city was mostly for the purpose of putting in his application for a pension, granted for the blind some time ago.

Rev. Clarence E. Webb, of Los Angeles, Cal., minister of the Evangelical Association of the Deaf, has gone to England and will remain there until October.

Henry Peters writes from Shandeele, N. Y., where he is vacationing with his family, that he is having a good rest and taking it easy.

NEW YORK

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

THE PICNIC AND GAMES OF THE BROOKLYN FRATS.

Saturday, August 17th, was the day of the Brooklyn Frats' Annual Picnic and Games at Ulmer Park Athletic Field, the scene of many championship contests of athletic clubs, and where for the past thirty-five years a deaf-mute organization has held its outings there.

Ulmer Park is in Brooklyn, N. Y., and is easily reached by various routes.

The day was an ideal one, and at the park there was a fine breeze, wafted from the ocean, only three-fourths of a mile away.

From the field, one could get a glimpse of the skyscraper, Half Moon Hotel, at Coney Island.

As predicted, the crowd began to come early, for they wanted to see the baseball game between the Brooklyn Frats and the Deaf-Mutes' Union League.

The game started early and rightly at that, for it was the longest game of nine innings ever played, consuming nearly four hours.

The final score was Brooklyn Frats, 17; Deaf-Mutes' Union League, 10.

Though long dragged, it excited many, for members of both organization were there in force.

While the baseball game was in progress, on the left side of the field Hugo Schmidt started the foot races for the boys and girls.

Following is the result:—

Tots—25 yards run—Won by Leo Krinsky.

Babies (2 to 3 years old), 10 yards—Ray Brandt, 2 years old.

Girls—25 yards run—Won by Ruth Silvermond.

Boys—25 yards run—Won by Walter Pease.

Extra Girls—25 yards run—Won by Diana Mendelson.

Ladies' 50 yards run—Won Miss Christina Durso.

Ladies' Potato Race—Won by Mrs. J. Brandt.

By the time the above races were finished, the baseball game also came to an end, and Hugo Schmidt marshalled the athletes to the cinder path, where the real contest were run.

The results follow:—
100 Yards Dash—Won by George I. Harris. Time 10 3/4 seconds.

One Mile Run—Won by Abe Goodstein.

440 Yards Run—Won by George I. Harris. Time 60 seconds.

Shot Put—Won by Hugh McBride.

One Mile Relay—Only two teams entered, the first and second teams of the Margraf Club. The first team won handily by almost half a lap.

Credit for the management of the affair is rightly due to the Arrangement Committee, who supervised everything. They were headed by Michael Hamra and Jack Seltzer. The former is a newcomer, but performed his task excellently. The latter, who is always connected with the management of the 23's outings, has stored enough experience in his home to know all about running these affairs. He did yeomen's service on this occasion.

Brooklyn Division, No. 23, N. F. S. D., for the past several years has enjoyed the distinction of drawing the largest crowd at their affairs, and on this occasion they have added two others worth recording—i.e., staging the longest baseball game, and the ten yards race by babies from 2 to 3 years. This last should have been seen, for no pen, even the mightiest, can describe it.

There was no disorder throughout the day and evening.

The total paid attendance was nearly 1,000. Again this year, as in the two previous years, no tickets were sold before the picnic. All purchased their tickets at the box office.

The dancing contest in the evening was won by Miss Lucy Tichenor and George Lynch, $5.00; Miss Patsy Schroder and Frank Heintz, $3.00; Miss Sylvia Goldblatt and Joe Arnovich, $2.00.

The judges were Mrs. Davis, of Newark, and two hearing gentlemen, sons of deaf parents.

The prizes of the winners of the foot races were distributed in the evening, and were all useful articles, and gave satisfaction.

There were forty-five cars parked in the park and near the entrance of the athletic field.

There were deaf-mutes from Connecticut, Trenton, Albany, Philadelphia and Chicago, but the greater number, of course, were from New York.

The officers of the Brooklyn Frats for the year of 1929 are: President, Harry J. Goldberg; Vice-President, L. Baker; Secretary, Benjamin Friedwald; Treasurer, J. Gabriel; Patriarch, Peter Redington; Director, P. Di Anno; Sergeant-at-Arms, M. Neufeld; Trustees, M. Rubin, A. Fogel and J. Sheehan.

Henry Peters writes from Shandeele, N. Y., where he is vacationing with his family, that he is having a good rest and taking it easy.

Funeral services for Miss Mary Lewis, for over two score years in charge of the laundry at the New York Institution, were held at the Church of St. Rose of Lima, Wednesday morning, August 14th, by the Rev. Fr. Keane, who was assisted by two acolytes. The ceremonial was very impressive. The remains were in an oak casket with silver trimmings. There were several friends or relatives present, besides the quota of employees of the laundry, the sewing room and other domestic departments.

As Principal Gardner is away on his vacation, Vice-Principal of the Administrative Department, Major Van Tassel, and the office force—Mrs. Slockbower, Mr. Hollander, Lieut. Edwards—were at the funeral service. Also three of the Cadets—Giordano, Boyajian, Hiron—and William A. Renner, James T. Garrick and E. A. Hodgson.

One open automobile was filled with floral tributes, and four or five with mourners followed the hearse to Calvary Cemetery, where the interment was made.

On Monday, August 12th, Mr. Nathan Wolk, beloved husband of Mrs. Lena Wolk, passed away, due to a heart attack. He had just returned to his home in Brooklyn, after a six-week stay with Mrs. Wolk's daughter, Mrs. Ruth Stern, at Long Beach, and was very happy to have been at his son's wedding three weeks previous.

All who knew him will sympathize with Mrs. Wolk, knowing she has lost a devoted husband and constant companion.

His death was a great shock to his own, as well as Mrs. Wolk's children, who were greatly endeared to him because of his kindness and gentlemanly manner. May he rest in peace.

Mrs. Wolk wishes to thank all her friends for their kind help and sympathy in her hour of sorrow.

On Thursday night, August 15th, after the monthly business meeting of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, Secretary Nathan Schwartz left for Philadelphia, Pa., where his wife has been stopping, and after arriving there will go with her to her former home in Norfolk, Va., where a monument of his late father is to be unveiled. The Schwartzes will remain in Norfolk, Va., till August 24th, and then return to Philadelphia, Pa., to remain till Labor Day.

Mrs. Ella McClelland, of Mt. View, N. J., a Sunday ago was taken unaware by unexpected visitors that poured in on her. From New York came Mr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. Levi, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bothner and Mr. Emanuel Souweine; from Yonkers, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, and also Mr. George Witschief, of Bloomfield, N. J. Mrs. McClelland's house is spacious and there was room for all, and she proved a fine hostess.

On Monday, August 12th, while crossing the street at 23d Street, Mr. Francis W. Nubner was struck by an ambulance. The crossing was clear, but as ambulances like fire engines have the right of way, he was struck and brought to the New York Hospital, where he is. After an X-ray, it was revealed that two toes of one of his feet were crushed, and we are informed that he will have to remain in the hospital for at least three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Von Pollnitz spent an enjoyable vacation in the Adirondack Mountains, in the vicinity of Lake George. They toured the whole distance in a trusty Stearns-Knight, which made the journey the most comfortable, as they could readily negotiate all the steep grades.

Mr. Ben C. Dennison, a graduate of the class of 1892, visited Fanwood on Thursday, August 15th. He had not seen Fanwood for thirty-seven years. Mr. Dennison inspected the newly-made fire-proof stairways and other settings. He is on his two weeks' vacation.

Odie W. Underhill, of the Faculty of the North Carolina School, spent a week alternating between Hotel Pennsylvania, N. Y., and the Thayer Hotel, West Point, visiting his son, James, now a cadet at the United States Military Academy, and New York friends. Cadet Underhill is an honorary Presidential appointment, secured through his having led his class at the Staunton (Va.) Military Academy.

Moritz Schoenfeld is well again. He was at the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League Thursday afternoon, August 15th, but did not remain to attend the meeting in the evening.

Dr. T. F. Fox and Mr. Sylvester Fogarty, when last heard from, were in Digby, Nova Scotia, preparing for a trip to Halifax. They are both feeling fine and enjoying new scenes. They expect to be in New York by September 1st.

Charles H. Miller was among those present at the business meeting of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, on Thursday, August 15th, after an absence of over three years. His many associates were glad to see him again.

Jose Goldman, of Middletown, O., was in town for the week-end of August 17th. He is a retired florist.

A surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennisson's twenty-fifth anniversary by their Trenton friends, on the evening of August 10th. It was not the exact date, they having been married on the 20th, but it was decided to celebrate it on the earlier date. There were about eighteen people present.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Geiger, of California, and Miss Ethel Collins, of Barnegat, N. J., the only ones present from out of town. Games were played, and afterwards ice-cream and cake were served. Everyone agreed that it was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. Benjamin DeCastro, of Panama City, arrived in New York, Monday on the S. S. Virginia, for two months' stay. He is a graduate of Fanwood. Being a Panamanian, he was taken to Ellis Island, and had to deposit $500 as a bond for his return at the time specified.

The anniversary outing for the Margraf Club occurred on the 11th of August, at Rockaway Beach. Nearly all of the members were there with their lady friends. Chairmen of the outing were P. Blend and J. Kostyk. The day was very warm. They enjoyed the beach in swimming and amusements. All returned home very tired, but a good time was reported.

Herbert Gunner, of Chicago, Ill., arrived in town on Saturday, in time to attend 23's picnic. He remained in our burg till Thursday morning, when he left for Atlantic City, N. J., and other eastern cities before returning home. His wife accompanied him East as far as Niagara Falls, and then went to Canada to visit relatives.

Walter Kadel was at the Frat picnic in Brooklyn, on Saturday last. He is subbing on the Port Jervis Monitor, as a linotype operator.

Barney Kindel is working at Roosevelt Field, painting airplanes. He painted stripes on Capt. Hawk's Lockheed plane recently.

OMAHA

Grand President Francis P. Gibson, of the N. F. S. D., and Mrs. Gibson arrived in Omaha on the afternoon of July 24th. They were met at the station by Messrs. Falk and Rosenblatt, who took them to the Rome Hotel, where the 1915 N. F. S. D. convention was held. They were dinner guests of President and Mrs. Treuke, of the Omaha Division. In the evening the Frats held a Smoker in the Nebraska School "gym." A little business was transacted, and Mr. Gibson gave an interesting "talk." Initiation ceremonies followed, with old Billy-goat all pepped up to welcome three novices, Bros. Probert, Flood and Thompson. The last named halls from Corning, Iowa.

A lot more would probably have joined if they knew the inside dope. Mrs. Gibson was entertained at the Orpheum by Mesdames Treuke and Hazel.

R. E. Dobson took the visitors for an auto ride on Thursday afternoon, and entertained them at his home for dinner. Horace W. Buell gave them a delectable luncheon that noon, and in the evening Mr. Gibson gave a very fine and interesting talk at an open meeting at the Rome Hotel. He related some facts and incidents concerning the meeting of the National Research Council held last February. Omaha Division gave him a handsome belt set, and also remembered Mrs. Gibson with a silver dish and salt and pepper shakers. It was a pleasant occasion in spite of the heat.

Edmund Berney has secured a position at the Omaha Electric Company. Miss Ruth Comandella is working for the Paxton & Gallagher Co.

CHICAGO

ILLINOIS ALUMNI REUNION AT THE I. S. D.

August 29-31 and September 1-2, 1929.

After a long strenuous fight, no effort left unturned, we, the deaf of Illinois, went over the top.

Our wish complied with, Governor Emerson saw fit to deem it wise to appoint an experienced man, an educator, to head our school.

What better time, what more fitting event than our coming Alumni reunion to celebrate our victory and to welcome our new school head, Dr. Dan. Cloud; also to thank them all who had much to do with helping us win our great battle.

What better place than our school to renew old friendship and acquaintance and live over the joys of school days?

The local committee, headed by Mr. Robey Burns, is doing all in its power to make it the best reunion ever, which deserves a record attendance.

Be on the lookout for and take advantage of the excursions which yearly come around Labor Day. Or if you own a car, do your bit, fill it up to its capacity and head for Jacksonville.

Just think, the lodging, the meals covering five whole days, including the kid party, the banquet, the dance, the wholesale gossiping, the moonlight spooning and everything else, for only $2.00 for former students, and $3.00 for visitors from any corner of the earth.

And half of all the cash will go to the Illinois Home for Infirm and Aged Deaf.

O, the men will have nothing on us women. Depend on your woman president to get up something to beat the Frats' smoker and mysterious night.

Joking aside, this is an appeal. In spite of our victory, there is yet much to do for our school and the general welfare of the deaf. Come all and every one of you. During the business sessions we will need all your help and visitors' advisors will be welcome and given full consideration. Otherwise, outside of those meetings, you will be free to enjoy the time of your life.

COME ONE AND ALL.

It is important, if you come, you must drop a card to Mrs. F. P. Fawcner, Secretary, 138 Park Street, Jacksonville, Ill.

ANN M. MCGANN
President Alumni Association

Donald P. Gibson—only son of our Grand Old Frat—was married June 19th, to a pretty graduate of Northwestern University, Miss Florence Valen, at the home of the bride's parents in Webster City, Ia. They are now living in Evanston—the first suburb north of Chicago, and famed as the home of General Charles Dawes.

"Don" Gibson—now a master-sergeant in the Sixty-sixth Brigade headquarters company, at Camp Grant—is entitled to two wound stripes received during the World War. (But he refused to wear them.)

The handsome, genial "Don" was one of the first to enlist when the world rang with the clash of conflict. Then a gangling, callow kid, he was sent far West to train—Texas, I believe. Came England's call: "Our backs are to the wall," and "Don's" brigade was among the first to be dispatched overseas. Hurrying to the Atlantic, the troop-train paused several hours in Chicago. Good old Gib and his wife vainly endeavored to locate the train in the vast yards—troop movements were veiled with great secrecy in those days—and the only child of Deafdom's great leader fled to Flanders without a last look at his parents.

"Don" was detailed as motorcycle dispatch-bearer—you have seen them in the movies, like "What Price Glory"—grim youth dashing through mud-puddles on shell-torn roads, carrying orders on which the fate of thousands depended. Mud-bespattered heroes, fair prey for every Boche airman. Of his war-record, "Don" is as noisy as a clam. All we know is he is entitled to wear two wound stripes—so the Germans must have pelted him on one of those crazy rides over crazy roads.

The Gibsons aged preceptibly during those trying days. All parents of sons at the front did. It was our sole role—aside from the 350 who toiled on gas-masks and balloons at good old Goodyear. But "Don" came back little the worse for his experiences. And now comes belated announcements of his marriage. Yet Gib does not look much older than you or I, fond heart. Can it be we are growing old?

It is reported some fifty Chicagoans have tentatively booked passage on the chartered buses leaving August 29th for the alumni reunion at Jacksonville. Special trip rate, $7. Dr. Dan T. Cloud, son of Illinois' Greatest Graduate will make his debut there. President Ann McGann states her program promises five days of fun and interest. As the five days lodging and meals cost only two dollars for those, and three dollars for those out of the State, it is evident a large throng will take advantage of the bargain. Mrs. Daisy Fawcner is local committeeman at Jax.

Robert Heacock, a young Buffalonian, spent two weeks in town, and reports Buffalo is arranging a jimmidy affair for the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the National Association of the Deaf, August 4th to 9th, next. "The Buffalo local committee is wide-awake, a live-wire bunch of enthusiasm," he reports. If it can measure up to the high standard set by the Washington and Denver convention-committees, there should be several thousand silents on deck when President Arthur L. Roberts, of Chicago, yields his toy croquet-mallet and declares King Joy enthroned.

President Francis P. Gibson, of the Frats, is back from several weeks' swing around the Pacific Coast, where it is said several new divisions are proposed, notably Vancouver, B. C., and either Winnipeg or Calgary. He made several dozen addresses in the fourteen or fifteen cities he visited. The genial Mrs. Gibson accompanied her distinguished husband. And ever since the plaint of Chicago wives is: "Oh, why can't you be as good to me as Gibson is to her?"

The 24th annual Labor Day picnic for benefit of the Illinois Home for Aged Deaf is scheduled for Riverdale Park Grove, 13413 South Indiana Avenue, September 2d. Take State Street trolley to 119th Street, transfer to Riverdale Avenue car and go south to end of line where grove is situated.

The Hebrew Deaf Club held a bus outing to Duneland Park at Tremont, Ind., Sunday, August 11th, under the management of Louis Rozett as chairman. Two buses labeled with "Willeth Chartered Coach," on each side, loaded with passengers, left Adams Street and Wabash Avenue, at 9:15 A.M., and picked up more passengers on the way to the park, some automobiles full of families following. After noon lunch, the guests enjoyed games, sports and other diversions. Round fare was $1.50 for bus ride. Those who drove their automobiles paid fifty cents for admission. The buses were travelling fast, rocking and jolting the passengers on the way to and from the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sharpnack were tendered a surprise party Saturday, August 10th, at the home of Miss Cora Jacobs, in honor of his birthday, Miss Jacobs sent out invitations to deaf friends to gather early. The Sharpnacks, being aware of the surprise planned for them, went to the home of Miss Jacobs on the invitation. When they entered, they met the greetings of twenty-five guests to remind Chas. of his birthday. He was remembered with cards and useful gifts.

Miss Jane P. Adams, a fifteen-year-old deaf girl, died last week of injuries she suffered last July, when she was struck by an automobile at Clark and Madison Streets. A policeman picked her up and sent her in a police ambulance to a police station, where the police tried to locate her parents or relatives, but could not find any, so her body was placed in the vault awaiting them. Those who know her whereabouts, report to Mr. Chas. Sharpnack at the M. E. Mission.

Mrs. Julius Gordon went to Florida, Ill., to spend three weeks with her folks. Her husband has gone there this week to join her, and then go on the way to Girard, Ill., for a visit with his folks. They will attend the reunion of the Illinois Association of the Deaf at the Jacksonville school, Thursday, August 29th.

Mrs. Emil Weller, of Los Angeles, Cal., who is visiting in Chicago, was called last week to Sheboygan by the death of her brother-in-law, Fred Weller, also deaf. The deceased was about seventy-five years old, and was educated at the Wisconsin State School for the Deaf. After that, Mrs. Weller returned and stopped at the home of Mrs. Dora McCoy, for a few days. She is remaining as guest of other deaf friends till she may go to Jacksonville, Ill., for the reunion.

Miss Laura Sheridan, a retired teacher of the Illinois State School for the Deaf, living with her folks in Indiana, is visiting in Chicago for a few weeks. She was at the M. E. Mission, Sunday, August 11th, and was invited to give a short talk, followed by a hymn chanted by Mrs. J. T. Meagher, in beautiful signs, while Rev. Charles Sharpnack was occupying the pulpit during the absence of Rev. Hasenstab.

The Ephphetha Club opened the season with a "500" and bunco party at the club house, Sunday evening, August 11th. The proceeds went to the building fund. The affair was in charge of Miss Cora Farrell as chair-lady.

George Pick, who came over to America from Bohemia six years ago, talks well, after learning signs in his association with the deaf. He returned from a one week's delightful trip through Canada and also other states in United States last week.

A "500" and bunco party, held at the club hall of the Pas-a-Pas Club, under the management of John Purdum, assisted by his wife, drew a large number of deaf people Saturday, August 10th.

Rudolph Lange, who has been connected with the Chicago office of the Insurance Company of North America for the past six weeks, has left Sunday, August 11th, for Cincinnati, O., where he will be special agent for that company in the Cincinnati office.

W. A. Cochrane, a retired teacher at the Wisconsin State School, whose illness was mentioned before, died Thursday, August 8th. Further details in next issue.

Kenneth Munger and wife are back from a six-week auto tour of California, in their Pontiac laudau.

Her parents gave Ruth Tanzar a wrist-watch on her thirteenth birthday.

Joyce, the youngest daughter of Rev. Hasenstab, now Mrs. T. L. Taylor, gave birth to an eight and a half pound boy—Theodore Linn, Jr.—on the 28th.

Alphonse Walter is laid up for repairs, the result of a fall sustained while at work.

Mrs. H. Odom gives the following news about the doings of the colored deaf:—

Mr. Howard Brooks, of Detroit, Mich., has joined our group and is employed at the stock yards. He is a product of the Ohio State School for the Deaf. He is making his home with his mother, from whom he has been absent for some nine years.

Last Sunday, Mrs. H. Odom had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, of Marion, Ind.

Mr. W. R. Thomas gave a whist party at his residence on Forrestville Avenue last week. It was largely attended.

Mr. Brooks and Mrs. Martin carried off first prize, but as ye scribble not present, a detailed account of the affair can't be given.

Mr. Howard Brooks and Miss Mary Brown stole a march on their friends by secretly getting married last week. Congratulations in abundance.

Mrs. Minnie Teague lost her daughter by death last week, who had been an invalid for several years. She has our sincerest sympathy in her sad bereavement.

Mr. L. R. Bates has with him, this week, his niece, Miss Pattie Bates, of Winchester, Ky. She will probably remain until the reopening of school in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Messrs. Poole and Taylor and Miss Geneva Pitts were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gaton in Evanston, Ill., last Sunday.

We are glad to state that all of our group, with at least one or two exceptions, are regularly employed.

Devil Fish Attacks Man On Rocks At Point Arena.

Attacked by a devil fish while he was searching for abalones in the clefts of the rocks near Point Arena, Sunday, March 24th, 1929, W. J. Terry, of San Mateo, had an unpleasant and exciting experience which he will not soon forget.

Terry and his wife had been at Point Arena for several days enjoying an outing and Sunday at low water started out to take some abalones.

While wading around among the pools in the ledges, he was suddenly seized by a squirming, clutching tentacles of an octopus, which twined around his legs and held him fast and although he struggled to free himself, was unable to get away from the octopus, which hung on to him with a death grip with two or three of its arms, while with the rest of the arms it clung to the rocks.

His wife who had accompanied him, was seated higher up on the rocks out of the reach of the waves. She heard his calls and witnessed his plight, but was unable to assist her husband. Fortunately for Terry, D. C. Simpson, principal of the Point Arena School, had accompanied the party and although at some distance, heard their cries for assistance and came running to the spot. Both men were using abalone bars and with these weapons, they attacked the monster and dispatched it. It was dragged ashore and proved to be an unusually large specimen for this coast, measuring about sixteen feet from tip to tip of its extended tentacles.

In describing his experience, Terry said, "I was in a stooping position, trying to pry an abalone loose when I was suddenly seized from behind and my legs bound together. Turning quickly around, I saw the devil fish with several of its arms thrashing the air, while with another it coiled around a rock. Its eyes resembled those of a cat, and its body was the size of a dish pan. With Mr. Simpson's help, we killed the creature with our abalone bars.

This is the largest specimen of the octopus ever seen on this coast. An occasional small one is encountered by abalone hunters, but only infrequently.

Dad's Dilemma

"How's the family?" inquired Jenks of Bing, his happily married friend from the other side of town.

"Well, my children are at a difficult age just now."

"Difficult? Why, they've all passed the measles and teething age, haven't they?"

"Long ago. But you don't know a father's troubles. My children are at the age where if I use slang, my wife says I'm setting a bad example. And if I speak correctly, the kids think I'm a back number. Which would you do?"—Kansas City Star.

Concerning the school's centennial, the editor of the Ohio State Journal has this to say in the issue of August 12th, and shows the widespread interest in the coming affair:—

Ohio was the first State west of the Alleghenies to establish a state school for the education of the deaf. The school was located in Columbus when the first legislation was passed in 1827, and will complete its first one hundred years of service with a centennial celebration here on August 31st. It will have hundreds of its former pupils here to share in the celebration, men and women, handicapped, who were trained and educated so well, they overcame the handicap, have been able to win and hold important places in the world. There will be a thrilling story of a century of highly productive work for unfortunate humanity culled from the records and told at the celebration.

This State made an enviable record in being first in the field in this part of the country with education for the deaf. It never has lost interest in that work, the school has been well supported, has been developed from an asylum, at it was known when founded, and today is a state home as well as school. It has stood among the foremost schools of its kind through all the years, has sent out thousands of graduates, ready for life. The methods of education and care represent the best thought of the day. It used the manual system of talking with fingers for many years, as others did, but it has made great progress in teaching lip-reading.

Horatio Nelson Hubbell was superintendent when the school was opened in 1829, in a rented room at Broad and High, with only one pupil. During the century only eleven men have been in the superintendent's office. The state retains the successful superintendent and develops the school under his direction. The first building on the present site was opened for use in 1834, other buildings have been added, the site has increased in value and the state has enlarged its care as the number of pupils has increased. For years the school has housed and educated about six hundred pupils.

The present superintendent, Dr. John William Jones, was appointed in 1895 and the school has had its most notable development under his direction. It has been made over from the asylum, into a real school, and has been known to many as the State Home for the Deaf. It has housed a great work where handicapped humanity was educated to overcome the handicap, where thousands of boys and girls have been able to go out into active life and take part as useful citizens. While there they have had home training to develop the quality of citizenship all states need. Dr. and Mrs. Jones have done a great work, useful to the pupils, of value to the state. The school never was in better condition. The state has reason to feel a great pride in what has been done and is being done there.

The opening of school has been postponed to September 11th on account of the reunion and the work following it. September 3d was the date expected.

Prof. Harley Drake, returning from Washington, D. C., with his daughter to his old home at Piqua, brought with him Mrs. Winnie Jones' two children to make a short visit to their cousin, Dr. J. W. Jones. The latter put them on the train for Portsmouth, where they will visit their grandparents. Prof. Drake, with the Winemillers and Miss Kolma Jansen, called on Miss Lamson in Westerville, to talk over affairs about the E. M. G. Fund, as Miss Lamson is on the national committee for the fund as well as the agent for Ohio.

Mr. William H. Zorn was called to North Baltimore, O., his old home, on account of his brother's death. The latter was about seventy years old. After a short stay there, Mr. Zorn will go to Gibsonburg to visit with relatives.

Dr. E. E. Earhart, at one time steward at the Ohio school, passed away last week at his home in the southern part of the State. His wife died a few years ago and one daughter survives. She has been in the Normal department at the school. Dr. Earhart will be remembered as a kind man. Dr. Jones attended his funeral.

Mrs. C. W. Charles, after entertaining the Stitches and Chatter Club the last of July, hied herself up to her summer cottage near Flint, Mich., for a rest of two weeks. Her two daughters entertained with quite a large bridge party at their home recently.

Mr. J. C. Winemiller is back home, after spending a week or so at his old home scenes at Wapakoneta, where he renewed his childhood days and friends. His good wife and son, William, remained at home to see that no harm came to their cozy home and their nice yard.

Mrs. A. J. Meehan was in Jonesville over the week-end of August 4th, to attend a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Laverna Carr Pumphrey, August 5th, who resides at South Zanesville and whose friends think she is still young enough to celebrate birthdays.

The Zell family were at Waynesville and Xenia for the week-end of August 10th, and while there they visited Antioch College at Yellow Springs, the home of Senator Fess.

Miss Bessie MacGregor, living in the country and seeing many family reunions, decided to do as others do and pretend a family reunion at her home August 7th. In the afternoon, instead of the usual family talks, her guests played bridge. The place cards at dinner were a surprise and caused much merriment. They were "Mother," "Twinsister," "Half Sis," "Brother-in-law," "Distant Cousin," etc.

Her guests were Mrs. Ella Zell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zorn. Winemiller Mr. Ernest Zell, Miss Ethelburga Zell, and her house guest, Mrs. Arthur Meehan, of Chicago, who remained a few days.

Miss MacGregor, a few days later, entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Meehan, Mrs. Wark, Mrs. Clum and Mrs. Ohlmacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were to take Miss MacGregor and Mrs. Meehan for a motor trip down into the lovely Hocking Valley district Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Fred Hundley, of Cincinnati, is now employed at a Columbus bakery. Mrs. Hundley, a Kentuckian, and their child are visiting at Somerset, Ky., near the noted Cumberland Falls, and we envy her more than we do her Fred, for we know what a lovely district she is in.

Voice Recovery

Mrs. Frank Gillie, who partially regained the use of her vocal cords during a fire at her old home at 21 Walnut Street, last January, is now on the road to recovery, it was ascertained today. The Troy Evening Record reporter who visited Mrs. Gillie's home the day following the fire last January, again visited Mrs. Gillie today at her new home, 20 Cypress Street. Until her recovery, Mrs. Gillie had been unable to speak a word for 25 years. Scarlet fever rendered her powers of speech useless a quarter of a century ago.

Mrs. Gillie was working in her kitchen one day last January, when she noticed smoke curling up from under her chair. She sprang from the chair and cried out the one word, "Fire."

When interviewed by a Troy Evening Record reporter, Mrs. Gillie stated by mean of paper and pencil, that she has learned to read the lips of a person addressing her with some amount of success.

"I can say some words, such as: Hello, how are you? What is your name? and Where do you live?"

And she proved it by speaking these short sentences for the reporter. Mrs. Gillie is the mother of two children, Carrie, five, and Arthur, 14, a caddy at the Troy Country Club.—Troy Record, July 30.

THE ALUMNI REUNION AT THE I. S. D.
30 Illinois Avenue, Chicago
August 29-31 and September 1-2, 1929

The thirteenth reunion of the Illinois Alumni Association will be held at the Illinois School for the Deaf, August 29th to 31st and September 1st to 2d, 1929.

A change is made in the dates, this time, believing that by holding the reunion later in the summer, a larger attendance is assured. Labor Day rates and holidays should also enable many to attend.

Graduates and former pupils, return to your Alma Mater for a happy reunion with old friends and classmates. The school will be yours during these days, memories of the old days, old friends and good times will make you all feel young again.

The members of the Illinois Association of the Deaf, the ones who are not graduates or former students, are welcome as our guests. Those living in Illinois, who are not members of said Association, are urged to join, so as to take advantage of attending our reunion.

It is planned to make a charge of two dollars per graduate, which will cover the entire time spent at the school; that is, meals and lodging, entertainment, etc. Half of this sum is to be sent to the Home in Chicago, the other half to defray local expenses. Three dollars is named as the rate for outside visitors. Should graduates or former students be able to attend one or two days, one dollar per day will be charged.

It is not possible to accommodate children.

Registration fee is $2 for graduates, former students and citizens of Illinois, and $3 for visitors outside of Illinois. Alumni dues—25 cents per year.

The local committee would appreciate having the names of those who intend to come, so as to make room reservations. Let us know as soon as possible.

Are you coming? Why, sure! Let's all get together for another happy reunion.

Drop a card to Mrs. F. P. Fawcner Secretary, 138 Park Street, Jacksonville, Ill.

S. ROBEY BURNS,
Chairman.

THE POPULATION IN QUEENS BOROUGH IS OVER

1 MILLION

According to estimate by Queensboro Chamber of Commerce, January, 1929, is a million reasons why you should buy IMPROVED lots in the fastest growing borough of Greater New York, where improvements are already installed, where transportation already exists—and above all, where many people are NOW living. Plans for five forty-family apartment houses have been filed and which adjoins the property. A word to the wise is sufficient.

ANDREW CARNEGIE has said—Ninety per cent. of all millionaires become so through coming real estate. More money has been made in real estate than in all industrial investments combined. The wise young man or woman of today should invest his money in real estate.
